

Globular has been creating and playing out his signature deeply psychedelic bass and world infused music from the heart of Bristol, UK since his debut release in 2010.

His sound tends to be a bubbling mass of frequencies, fluctuating in and out of existence, with the sole purpose of stimulating the ears, tickling the brain and moving the body. Dubbed-out bass lines provide the bedrock for the harmonic intricacies and grooving melodies that typify Globular's sound. Inspired by the universe and all it encompasses, and drawing influence from the psychedelic classics, he strives to take listeners on a journey of their own choosing, encouraging all who enter to create their own stories and to dance their own dance.
